At the meeting on 27 March, [REDACTED] of D/S commented on the various sessions of the U.S. - Polish talks which he attended. He discussed the back-grounds and attitudes of various members of the Polish delegation led by Mr. Kotlicki. In general, the men who composed the delegation appeared to be competent in their respective fields. After an introductory meeting, the sessions proceeded to discuss the Polish balance of payments, the agricultural situation, and Polish coal. Throughout the discussions the Polish delegates were quite frank in answering questions posed by the U.S. delegation. The Polish delegation presented a detailed list of needed commodities with delivery priorities indicated, and stated that U.S. financial claims against Poland could be considered at some future date, preferably in Warsaw.
